

TIDAL WAVE

GOT7

Summer came and went
And I spent all of it alone, oh, yeah
Seeing videos of you dancin'
On my phone, guess you're not alone (Ayy)

I'm weak and no surprise, you're still my kryptonite
And we can start a riot, come by my crib tonight
Pinching myself 'cause I can't Stop the dreams of you and I, you're still my kryptonite

True, I know I know it's late but
You coming through, or should I come your way?
I lit a fire, up 'cause I'm tired
Ooh, I can't sleep till I see your face

All these thoughts of you come out the blue
You're my tidal wave, I get swept away
And, girl, it's feeling empty in this pool
Need a tidal wave, sweep me away
'Cause all I want is you
My tidal wave, my tidal wave
And you sweep me away
My tidal wave, my tidal wave

Feels like home when you're here
Feels like war when you're away, oh, yeah
Girl I'm stuck here thinking 'bout us
And everything I'd say, if we were face to face (Ayy)

I'm weak and no surprise, you're still my kryptonite
And we can start a riot, come by my crib tonight
Kicking myself 'cause I'm far
Far from you, up in the sky, you're still my kryptonite

True, I know I know it's late but
You coming through, or should I come your way?
I lit a fire, up 'cause I'm tired
Ooh, I can't sleep till I see your face

All these thoughts of you come out the blue
You're my tidal wave, I get swept away
And, girl, it's feeling empty in this pool
Need a tidal wave, sweep me away
'Cause all I want is you
My tidal wave, my tidal wave
And you sweep me away
My tidal wave, my tidal wave

My tidal wave
