

Alone In The Mountains

Goth Babe

I find myself thinking of high school
Dreaming of a life I'd find
No one really wanted what I had in mind
And god, am I glad I'm not signed

The only kids sleeping in parking lots
Straight out of senior year
Looking for a manager in LA
Hoping that I'd find a career

I find myself alone in the mountains
I find myself alone in the mountains
I find myself alone in the mountains
I find myself alone in the mountains

And it goes

I find myself alone in the mountains
Grateful for my life today
It's just me and my dog most of the time
I wouldn't have it any other way

And it goes
