

Backwards

Goth Babe

All the times that we spent running backwards
All the ways that we feel but you feel it first
Ooh, ooh ooh
Only for the memories that stayed
I don't wanna break your heart today
Only for the memories delayed
I don't want more
Ooh, ooh ooh

I don't wanna break your heart
I don't wanna break your heart

Just a talk overnight and it's over
Just a hand full of words off my shoulders
Ooh, ooh ooh
Only for the memories that stayed
I don't wanna break your heart today
Only for the memories delayed
I don't want more
Ooh, ooh ooh

I don't wanna break your heart
I don't wanna break your heart

All the times that we spent running backwards
Again and again right now
All the things that I thought but you said first It's hard to keep it simple when we're talking about forever no w
Wish it could be easy, but it's changing like the seasons, how?
Darling, what you want, should we keep it up?
I don't know, but I know I

I don't wanna break your heart
I don't wanna break your heart
I don't wanna break your heart
I don't wanna break your heart
