

Breathe

Goth Babe

Take me down and break me down
I know this feeling and it's no good
You said what you were feeling
And I know I'm not misunderstood
I go to move, I should've lied
But you don't care you broke my heart
I've fallen down many times
But can I take back the start

And oh, you've broken me
And oh, why do you breathe
And oh, you've broken me
And oh, why do you breathe

Shattered me in a million pieces
And [?] and why I fall
Love is where I take it [?]
Can you [?] the shot
Give me back the time I've spent and wasted over you
You've fallen in love [?]
I still loved you

And oh, you've broken me
And oh, why do you breathe
And oh, you've broken me
And oh, why do you breathe

And oh, you've broken me
And oh, why do you breathe
