Goth Babe

And I knew that you would find, darling, are you mine?
I want you to want me, I want you to want me
And I knew that you would find, darling, are you mine?
I want you to want me, I want you to want me, yeah

I knew that you would find, darling, are you mine?
I want you to want me, I want you to want me
And I knew that you would find, darling, are you mine?
I want you to want me, I want you to want me, yeah

Why won't you wait for me to show?
Why would we ever take it slow?
Why won't you wait for me to show?
Why would we ever take it slow?

I want it, don't you see?
Your forehead down on me
I want it, don't you see?
And I don't wanna break, and I don't wanna break

I want it, don't you see?
Your forehead down on me
I want it, don't you see?
And I don't wanna break, and I don't wanna break

I want it, don't you see?
Your forehead down on me
I want it, don't you see?
And I don't wanna break, and I don't wanna break

I want it, don't you see?
Your forehead down on me
I want it, don't you see?
And I don't wanna break, and I don't wanna break

Why won't you wait for me to show?
Why would we ever take it slow?
Why won't you wait for me to show?
Why would we ever take it slow?
