

Sadie

Goth Babe

I wait for the sun
I wait for you to come home, human
I know it's not fun
I'm knowing that it's all just starting

Sweet, run around
Please, run around

Ah, ah
Ah, ah

I feel the waves that you want me to go, that you want me to go It's taken days since you started to show, since you started to show

My Sadie's at home
I've only got a few days to go
Her father's alone
I'm coming home, I hope that you've been

Sweet, run around
Please, run around

Ah, ah
Ah, ah

It's taken days since you started to show, since you started to

It's taken days since you started to show, since you started to
show

I feel the
Ah, ah
Ah, ah
Ah, ah
