

Velvet Sheets

Goth Babe

I've got my feelings on
They got a mind of their own
Can I call you now?
Please won't you pick up the phone
I need a face to touch
Mine is getting old
Where is my home?
I'm really feeling bold

Some day soon I'll run, I'll run with you
Some day soon I'll run, I'll run with you

When my folks are there
They've heard about everyday
And my head feels numb
I think it might be decaying

Some day soon I'll run, I'll run with you
Some day soon I'll run, I'll run with you
