

Whole World

Goth Babe

I want the whole world to know you're mine
'Cause you got me feeling, 'cause I got no doubts
I want the whole world to know you're mine

I want the whole world to know you're mine
'Cause you got me feeling, 'cause I got no doubts
I want the whole world to know you're mine

And only through the heart of it
Only through the ways that you love me
Only through the ways you set me free
And only through the mornings in
Only through the ways you look at me
Only through the ways you love Sadie

I want the whole world to know you're mine
'Cause you got me feeling, 'cause I got no doubts
I want the whole world to know you're mine

I want the whole world to know you're mine
'Cause you got me feeling, 'cause I got no doubts
I want the whole world to know you're mine
