

Battle of the Underworlds

Gothminister

Back in the times of the dark
Empire's greatness
Black winds would come from the East
From wicked places yet unknown

Shadows are gathering around
Preparing for wartime
The dead will arise, the echos will die
In the coming frightful doom

They came here to balance the Earth
So angels and demons learn
A shadow fell upon the land
Cause evil resides in man

They sent a witch
We brought a monster
In came the wolves on site
And now the battle could begin
They sent a witch
We brought a monster
It was a dreadful night
And now the battle could begin
It could begin

Witches and servants of nature
Had found their allies
The battle will take it's toll
In the coming frightful doom

They came here to balance the Earth
So angels and demons learn
A shadow fell upon the land
Cause evil resides in man

They sent a witch
We brought a monster
In came the wolves on site
And now the battle could begin
They sent a witch
We brought a monster
It was a dreadful night
And now the battle could begin
It could begin

Fight
Through the longest night
When this night ends
Heaven and Hell will await

Back in the times of the dark
Empire's greatness
We captured one from the East
From wicked places yet unknown

They came here to balance the Earth

A shadow fell upon the land

They sent a...
They sent a witch
We brought a monster
They sent a witch
We brought a monster
It was a dreadful night
And now the battle soon will end
They sent a witch
They sent a witch
It was a dreadful night
The battle ends!
