

I Will Drink Your Blood

Gothminister

I will eat your flesh
I will drink your blood

Outside the wind is howling
There comes a sudden fright
You see a shadow coming
I will save your soul
You see me move, you tremble
You are alone and scared
Take my hand and let yourself go

I will eat your flesh
I will drink your blood
I will eat your flesh
I will drink your blood

Do you believe in strangers
Despair has its own calms
Loneliness is a monster
I will save your soul
There is a flame within us
You feel the fire burns
Here in the fading starlight
I will save your soul

I will eat your flesh
I will drink your blood
I will eat your flesh
In the darkest night
I will drink your blood

I will eat your flesh
Save me
I will drink your blood
In the darkest night
I will eat your flesh
Save me
I will drink your blood
In the darkest night

I will eat your flesh
And I will drink your blood
