Gothminister

Norge, Norge

Norge, Norge
Norge, Norge

Norge, Norge
Norge, Norge

The wind is calling
Far up from the north
The sky is falling
A storm is coming close

You drown in despair
The hordes are coming in
You built the castle
But we will be the kings

Norge, Norge
Norge, Norge
We take you soul by soul
One by one
Norge, Norge
Norge, Norge
We're heading for the light
We're coming home tonight

This is the new dawn
Life pours into our mouths
You know we'll guide you
Up a rope into the sky
We sent the darkness
And it becomes the night
All true believers
Will join us in our fight

Norge, Norge
Norge, Norge
We take you soul by soul
One by one
Norge, Norge
Norge, Norge
We're heading for the light
We're coming home tonight

Norge, Norge
Norge, Norge
We take you soul by soul
One by one
Norge, Norge
Norge, Norge
We're heading for the light
We're coming home tonight

Norge, Norge
Norge, Norge
We take you soul by soul

One by one
We're heading for the light

Norge, Norge
