

Pandemonium

Gothminister

White flames
Tonight
We all fly high
Broken dreams
Lie shattered under blackened skies

Repent
Persist
We were born to believe there's no way to resist

One day sunlight will shine on us all
The time has come
To smash our God and to
Burn down these walls
Forgive us and start
Praying for us all
Tonight the blood will
Fill the streets of war

Pandemonium
Pandemonium
Pandemonium
There's a pain in our brain
Pandemonium
Dance with death, go insane

Red moon
We slaughter the ancient
Tomorrow
The world is forever changed

Uproar
Confusion
We tear down the statue
Our old God is dead!

One day sunlight will shine on us all
Tonight the blood will
Fill the streets of war

Pandemonium
Pandemonium
Pandemonium
There's a pain in our brain
Pandemonium
Dance with death, go insane

Into the chaos zone
We all go marching on

With folded hands
We were praising him for the damage
That has been done, like it was
The greatest thing on earth

Into the void
We are running towards our freedom

With bloodred hands
But we don't know if we are prepared

A collapsed land
It shows that all creation is hollow
We stared into
The abyss
But now he's gazing back at us
And hell breaks loose

Into the chaos zone
We all go

Pandemonium
There's a pain in our brain
Pandemonium
Dance with death, go insane
Pandemonium
There's a pain in our brain
Pandemonium
Dance with death, go insane
