

Red Christ

Gothminister

I don't know why I get this feeling in my bones
Sometimes it feels like my own heads gonna explode
Discerning thoughts on how the universe will end
Tonight I'm gonna rock until the morning now we're dead

Eyes turned so blind
Still I see through the mirror
I understand, we are pushing the limits open!
Eyes turned so blind
But I feel a future is coming
Eyes turned so blind!
I can see through the mirror!

There are so many things we ought to see and do
Within darkness there is hope for me and you
Just close your eyes and start imagining the rise
Tonight we're gonna rock until the morning we all die
I don't know why I get this feeling in my bones
Sometimes it feels like my own heads gonna explode
Discerning thoughts on how the universe will end
Tonight I'm gonna rock until the morning now we're dead

Eyes turned so blind
Still I see through the mirror
I understand, we are pushing the limits open!
Eyes turned so blind
But I feel a future is coming
Eyes turned so blind!
I can see through the mirror!

See through the mirror!
See through the mirror!

Eyes turned so blind
Still I see through the mirror
I understand, we are pushing the limits open!
Eyes turned so blind
But I feel a future is coming
Eyes turned so blind!
I can see through the mirror!

Eyes turned so blind!
I can stay here forever!
Stay here forever!
Stay here forever!
