Star
You are a fading memory
It isn't how it's supposed to be
You had the world before your feet
But it didn't matter

Star
It doesn't matter just who you are
You always wanted to take it too far
You had the world before your feet
But now your dreams are shattered

Star
In a lost horizon
You're a lonely creature
Star
Full of broken dreams
It seems
In the mind of no one

Star
With the fame and bright lights
And the lonely dark nights
Star
Full of broken dreams
It seems
In the mind of no one

Star
It doesn't matter who you are
How will they know that you were a star
Cause you were living in a dream
For you there is no future

Star
Getting off the stage and feel
You're so lost when no one sees
How do you feel when life gets real?
And all your hopes are shattered

Star
In a lost horizon
You're a lonely creature
Star
Full of broken dreams
It seems
In the mind of no one
Star
Star
Star
Star

You are a fading memory
You had the world before your feet
But it didn't matter

Star

In a lost horizon
Star
It seems

Star
Star
It seems
