

This Is Your Darkness

Gothminister

If nothing stays the same
Do you believe in the future?
If no one knows your name
You have to step up your game

This is your darkness
Something took your stage
This is your darkness
Nothing will remain
This is your darkness
This is your darkness

What do you feel now
In the darkest of your soul?
Can you see the creation
Made of fairy tales and bones?

This is your darkness
Something took your stage
This is your darkness
Nothing will remain
This is your darkness
Something took your stage
This is your darkness
Nothing will remain

And then
If nothing stays the same
Do you believe in the future?
If no one knows your name
You'll have to step up your game
Just once again

This is your darkness
Something took your stage
This is your darkness
Nothing will remain
This is your darkness
Something took your stage
This is your darkness
Nothing will remain

This is your darkness
This is your darkness
This is your darkness
