

Tonight

Gothminister

Blasting our way through Hell
A change is in the air
You're unclean, you want us dead
We'll fight until the end
The dead will dance, a great rebirth
We were waiting for The Only One
Blood will rain down on this earth
We are here, we are coming home

Tonight
The cards will turn
Tonight
You all will burn
And tonight
Your throne will fall
Tonight
I kill you all

Chains of gloomy darkness
You can not kill our soul
Judgement day has come
You can not kill us all
Dead will dance, a great rebirth
Blood will rain down on this earth

Tonight
The cards will turn
Tonight
You all will burn
And tonight
Your throne will fall
Tonight
I kill you all

Tonight, tonight, tonight
Tonight, tonight, tonight

Kill the witch with fire
Kill the wolf with fire, too
Burn them all or stab them down
Tonight I will regain my crown
Do you see another beautiful death
Do you see another beautiful death
Do you see another failed attack
Do you realise, the King is back

(You have all what let me down)

Tonight
The cards will turn
Tonight
You all will burn
And tonight
Your throne will fall
Tonight
I kill you all

Tonight
The cards will turn
Tonight
You all will burn
And tonight
Your throne will fall
Tonight
I kill you all

Tonight, tonight, tonight
Tonight, tonight, tonight

And tonight
Your throne will fall
Tonight
I kill you all
