

First In Your Face

Gotthard

You pushed it to the limit
Now you gotta choose tonight
Tarot woman, you're all about to loose the fight
Don't need a part time wizard
Who drives me outta my mind
'cause' I'm allright
I gonna live it up tonight

Once upon a time,
Thought the world was mine alone
Had no time to realize,
It came without a warning at all

Like a fist in your face
A fist in your face

And there's a time bomb tickin'
Deep inside my head
Must be a black hole attraction
A wrong step n' you're dead
Don't know the word surrender
Don't know the rules of the game
I'm ready to go and I swear
You won't forget my name
