

No Time to Cry

Gotthard

I tried to make you listen
Indifference in return
You never seem to understand
And you never seem to learn

If I could make a word
A word to make you understand
If I could take a voice
A voice to take you by the hand
Maybe then you'd listen
Maybe then... Maybe then you'd try

If I could speak the words
But words are weak when minds are closed
Can't you see the shadow
That you're casting? Don't you know?
Maybe you should listen, you're almost out of time
Maybe change your vision, better dry your eyes

Cause there's no time to cry
No time to cry oh

If I could find a way
A way to change the things I've seen
If I could write a letter
Would you read in disbelief?
Maybe then you'd understand
Maybe then... Maybe then you'd try

If I could take the time
The time it takes to heal and mend
I'll save myself the trouble
But I won't save you in the end
Maybe now you'll listen and maybe now you're wise
And now you change your vision, open up your eyes

Cause there's no time to cry
Don't leave and let die oh
No there's no time to cry
I'm only one of a kind oh oh
No there's no time to cry

I tried to make you listen
Indifference in return
You never seem to understand
And you never seem to learn

Cause there's no time to cry
Don't leave and let die oh
No there's no time to cry
I'm only one of a kind oh

No time no time
Cause there's no time to cry

I tried to make you listen
If you could see the end

If I could make you listen
Can't you understand
Now it's time for action
Now it's time for action

Cause there's no time to cry
You better realise
You better dry your eyes oh oh

Tried to make you listen
