

Shake Shake

Gotthard

It doesn't matter if you win or lose
It doesn't matter if you make the rules
It doesn't matter If you know it all
'Cause anybody can climb up and fall

I don't wanna look the other way
I don't wanna lose another day
I don't wanna point the finger but
I think it's time that you beat the odds

It doesn't matter if you're right or wrong
It doesn't matter if you're weak or strong
It doesn't matter If you miss the call
'Cause anybody can trip up and fall

I don't really wanna shake you up
I don't really wanna bring you down
I don't wanna tell you what to do
I don't really wanna give you hell
But you're looking like a broken empty shell

Shake! Shake! When the mirror breaks
Forget the walking, talking jive
Shake! Shake! When the mirror breaks
Will the fire turn to ice?
Will the fire turn to ice?
Will the fire turn to ice?

It doesn't matter if you're Yen or Yang
It doesn't matter If you rule a gang
It doesn't matter if you're made of gold
Cause everybody's gotta face the cold

I don't really wanna shake you up
I don't really wanna bring you down
I don't wanna tell you what to do
I don't really wanna give you hell
But you're looking like a broken empty shell

Shake! Shake! When the mirror breaks
Forget the walking, talking jive
Shake! Shake! When the mirror breaks
Will the fire turn to ice?
Will the fire turn to ice?

Shake! Shake! When the mirror breaks
Forget the walking, talking jive
Shake! Shake! When the mirror breaks
Will the fire turn to ice?
Shake! Shake! When the mirror breaks
Forget the walking, talking jive
Shake! Shake! When the mirror breaks
Will the fire turn to ice?
Will the fire turn Fire turn to ice?
Will the fire turn to ice?
Will the fire turn to ice?
