Something's Wrong, Doctor Please Got A Strange Heart Disease And I Desperately Need To Get Over This Temptation

There She Stands Day By Day And My Life Turns Away It Was Love At The First Sight And I Know This Won't Come Easy

Couldn't Move, I Was Petrified Couldn't Talk, When She Passed Me By Now She's Constantly Part In My Thoughts, In My Heart Can't Hold Another Day

All I Want Is You, You, You Nobody Else But You, You, You Come Rain And Shine It's All The Same Everytime I Call Your Name

Certain Things Meant To Last Some Others, Part Of The Past I Know That I Can't Be Wrong Lovin' You

So Gimme A Chance, A Little Sign.... And I Know That One Day You're Mine I Want You To Know No Way I Let Go Surrender To My Love

All I Want Is You, You, You Nobody Else But You, You, You Come Rain And Shine It's All Insane Everytime You Play That Game

All I Want Is You, You, You Nobody Else But You, You, You Come Rain And Shine Its All The Same

All I Want Is You, You, You Nobody Else But You, You, You Come Rain And Shine It's All Insane Everytime You Play That Game
