

I Was Only Looking

Gowan

When you gonna ask me what I'm doing here
When you gonna look me in the eye
When you gonna tell me there's no future here
When we gonna say our last goodbye
Wonder if you'll ever be my friend again
Hope I didn't drift to far away
Wonder if your heart will ever mend again
Wonder if you'll hear me when I say
Now I know that I'm lost without it

I was only looking for that beat again
I was only trying
To bring some rhythm in my life
The tempo was gone

And I had to go on without it
Trying to find it again
Put it back

Never thought I'd look to see your face again
Never thought I'd stare into those eyes
Never thought the wind would bring me here again
Always thought we'd said our last goodbye
But I was only looking for that beat again
I was only looking for that drive
I was only trying to find my feet again
Thatç-´ the only way that I'll survive
Cause I know that I'm lost without it
