

Moonlight Desires

Gowan

You've got ways to take hold of my thoughts
Overriding my senses
Lock your sights dead in line with my heart
Share your powers
You stir my soul and whet my hunger
And weave that spell that pulls me under, oh

These moonlight desires haunt me
They want me, they want me
These moonlight desires haunt me
You're sending, you're sending

Secret fires burn inside me unknown
Raging on, never mentioned
Only you can uncover the flames
Break their silence
And make them dance for us to see them
And break their chains and give them freedom, oh

These moonlight desires haunt me
They want me, they want me
These moonlight desires haunt me
You're sending, you're sending

A wave over my mind
And I fall to it blind
You say, trust me

Stir my soul and whet my hunger
And weave that spell that pulls me under

These moonlight desires haunt me
They want me, they want me
These moonlight desires haunt me
You're sending, you're sending
A wave over my mind
Moonlight desires
