

I wish you wouldn't say those things
You're only gonna leave
I wish you wouldn't tell her things
You used to say to me

I know I'm not the only one lining up for you
But if it's just for fun, I'll let your heart not be so true

You're promising these things like the rest of them
I hope you're not lying baby but I won't hold my breathe
Hold my breathe

Your lies taste so sweet
You're like honey dripping on my teeth
Bitter tastes better when you're kissing me
You're like honey honey dripping on my teeth

I know I'm not the only one lining up for you
But if it's just for fun, I'll let your heart not be so true

You're promising these things like the rest of them
I hope you're not lying baby but I won't hold my breathe
Hold my breathe

Your lies taste so sweet
You're like honey dripping on my teeth
Bitter tastes better when you're kissing me
You're like honey honey dripping on my teeth
(Honey dripping on my teeth)

You've got something that I gotta have
So don't take it all away from me
You know I like to be a little bad
You can't have a sting without a bee

Your lies taste so sweet
You're like honey dripping on my teeth
Bitter tastes better when you're kissing me
You're like honey
You're like honey

Your lies taste so sweet
You're like honey dripping on my teeth
Bitter tastes better when you're kissing me
You're like honey honey dripping on my teeth
