

Last Night

GRAACE

Fuck it, it's late, can we go back
Can we go back to your place?
I know I usually say, "I don't do this"
But I would be lying anyway
Fuck it, we're here
And all slurring turned to crying
'Cause I must've had one too many drinks

For everyone I've hurt, everyone I've hurt
Did you hear the sirens blow?
For everyone I've hurt, everyone I've hurt
Guess I'll see you down in hell

And I blinded you 'cause I loved your eyes
And I took your voice 'cause I loved to lie
And I weighed you down, so I learned to fly
Last night I made you cry

Remember that time
That I told you I was all alone, I lied
I never do what's right
I said my phone was dead
But your sister tried to call me on her way
She never liked me much

For everyone I've hurt, everyone I've hurt
Did you hear the sirens blow?
For everyone I've hurt, everyone I've hurt
Guess I'll see you down in hell

And I blinded you 'cause I loved your eyes
And I took your voice 'cause I loved to lie
And I weighed you down, so I learned to fly
Last night I made you cry

And I told you once and I told you twice
That I let you go just to watch you fall
And I told you once and I told you twice

And I blinded you 'cause I loved your eyes
And I took your voice 'cause I loved to lie
And I weighed you down, so I learned to fly
Last night I made you cry

And I blinded you 'cause I loved your eyes
And I took your voice 'cause I loved to lie
And I weighed you down, so I learned to fly
Last night I made you cry
