

Sentimental

GRAACE

Give me a reason and I swear I'll stay
I'll forget the memories and all your mistakes
So I'll wait, I'll wait
Through all of your phases and all your bad days
You're too sentimental for your own good babe
So I'll wait, I'll wait
I'll wait

Is this how the future's supposed to be?
Seeing it I've got this sinking feeling

I'll wait for the right time to tell you
Your stubbornness won't help your issues
Come here baby I'll hold you tightly
Let's get lost with each other blindly

Was flipping through faces in every place
Hoping I'd find someone to keep me safe
I was so hard to love in every phase
So trust me when I say I won't runaway

Is this how the future's supposed to be?
Seeing it I've got this sinking feeling

I'll wait for the right time to tell you
Your stubbornness won't help your issues
Come here baby I'll hold you tightly
Let's get lost with each other blindly

You're too sentimental, for your own good babe
