

Break Me Down

Grabbitz

I'm all set for a getaway
I've had my ticket but I'm moving so slowly
I'm ready for my getaway, ooh-ooh
It's the daylight calling me
'Cause I've been sent into a night with no morning
It's gonna take all of me

But I bet I won't let it break me down

I bet it don't break me
I bet it don't break me down
I bet it don't break me
I bet it don't break me down

I let clock hands work on me
It's been a minute since I let the wood door down
The clock hands are turning me

But I bet I don't let them turn me 'round
I bet I don't let it break me down

I bet it don't break me
I bet it don't break me down
I bet it don't break me
I bet it don't break me down
I bet it don't break me
I bet it don't break me down
I bet it don't break me
I bet it don't break me down

I bet it don't break me
I bet it don't break me down
I bet it don't break me
I bet it don't break me down
