

Cheerleader

Grabbitz

There's no doubt
I can tell you're acting your heart out
And she's addicted
Obsessed like, "I know I can fix him"

She's got hearts in her eyes
And she draws me kissing other guys
Her love, the type
Where she don't know where to draw the line

Cheerleader
Thought she needed me, but I need her
It's not fair, no
'Cause I knew you like the back of my hands

Don't you care?
I gave you everything, ah
Now I feel you even when you're not there
Now I feel you even when you're not there

It's kinda sad how
It's not your fault you're living in a madhouse
I can't back down
Aren't you tired of blending into the background?

She's got hearts in her eyes
Saying, "Boy, you better watch the time
'Cause if you're not mine
I'd rather see you burned alive," oh

Cheerleader
Says she hates me 'cause I'm not hers
It's not fair
'Cause I knew you like the back of my hands
(Oh)

Well, don't you care?
I gave you everything, ah
Now I feel you even when you're not there
Now I feel you even when you're not there
