Cold

Grabbitz

I think we've been here before
And you're digging a hole
While I'm ceiling to floor
With your girl on the phone
And the kids in the yard
Who just wanna go home
But you're digging a hole
So that you're not alone anymore

We used to light the room right up
Now we barely see the colors on our walls
I like it dark, I like it dark
That way you never really see me at all

I'm not quite the man that you needed me to be
I'm not quite the man that you needed me to be

You're not that cold, oh no

You're saying, "Love me, take care of me"
"Baby you know what to do"
You're not that cold, oh no

You're saying, "Love me, take care of me"
"Baby you know what to do"

But I don't wanna love no more
I don't know what I'm supposed to do
I don't wanna love no more
I don't wanna love because of you

You think your talking is gold
And you've been here before
But your aging gets old
When your life's on the floor
Only heaven can know
Where your heaviness goes
When the kids in the yard
Find themselves in the hole, oh no

I'm not quite the man that you needed me to be
I'm not quite the man that you needed me to be

You're not that cold, oh no

You're saying, "Love me, take care of me"
"Baby you know what to do"
You're not that cold
Oh no oh oh oh

You're saying, "Love me, take care of me"
"Baby you know what to do"

I'm not quite the man that you needed me to be
(You're not that cold, oh no)
I'm not quite the man that you needed me to be
(You're not that cold, oh no)

But I don't wanna love no more
I don't know what I'm supposed to do
I don't wanna love no more
I don't wanna love because of you
