

Love You 'Til I'm Dead

Grabbitz

Hypnotize me, mesmerize me, spin me in your web
Just remember, I surrender, love you 'til I'm dead

Follow you into the darkest holes
Full of my biggest fears, what all my nightmares hold
I'd travel with you to the depths of Hell
You give me gasoline, I'll go and douse myself
I'll get lost in all your sweet nothings
I'll burn the whole city to make them mean something
I'm yours for all the wrong reasons
I'm stuck, I can't move, I'm losing my feeling

Hypnotize me, mesmerize me, spin me in your web
Paralyze me even after everything you said
Turning me to memories and feast upon my head
Just remember, I surrender, love you 'til I'm dead

Talking to you is my only thrill
I'm wrapped around your fingers in a bed of silk
The pressure gets a little tighter still
Now my entire life's up in the windowsill
I was lost, if only you found me
I don't mind the chains if you're saw around me
I'm yours for all the wrong reasons
I'm actually flattered you think I'm worth keeping

Hypnotize me, mesmerize me, spin me in your web
Paralyze me even after everything you said
Turning me to memories and feast upon my head
Just remember, I surrender, love you 'til I'm dead

Love you 'til I'm dead
Love you 'til I'm dead

I'm the vision in your thousand eyes, the wrinkles in your skin
The truth in all your alibis, the thoughts you're drowning in Just because I'm gone doesn't mean I've gone away
I'm the whisper in your ear telling you I'm here to stay

Hypnotize me, mesmerize me, spin me in your web
Paralyze me even after everything you said
Turning me to memories and feast upon my head
Just remember, I surrender, love you 'til I'm dead

Love you 'til I'm dead
