Pigs In The Sky

Grabbitz

Hold up, I gotta Lysol that
Mood swings like it's got a fuckin' baseball bat
News streams, I don't really wanna face all that
Bad dreams are worse when you're awake, I'll bet
It's a nightmare, life like a movie
They write the screenplay, I write the music
Playing out a role not knowing how it ends
What if all my enemies turn into my friends?

And what if the world is never ever the same?
And what if all the money could never buy you a thing?
And what if all the songs you never thought you would sing
Start coming out, out?
And what if the truth that you never wanna face
Becomes the only flavor you're ever gonna taste?
I guess I'm not a stranger to everything erased
What's coming now, now?

What now? What now?
What now?
Uh, and what comes next?
Probably pigs in the sky if I had to guess
What now? What now?
What now?
Uh, and what comes next?
Probably pigs in the sky if I had to guess

Uh, and what comes next?
Probably pigs in the sky if I had to guess

Woke up, I'm in a loop, I think
Falsehoods pulled down to show a truth, I think
All good, I'll just put my hands into my sink
Rinse off all the negative and do my thing
Sometimes I feel like I'm in a film
Where there's an evil demon getting everybody killed
And all the people screaming "Will we make it til the end?"
Then all the sudden turns out the demon is your friend

And what if the world is never ever the same?
And what if all the money could never buy you a thing?
And what if all the songs you never thought you would sing
Start coming out, out?
And what if the truth that you never wanna face
Becomes the only flavor you're ever gonna taste?
I guess I'm not a stranger to everything erased
What's coming now?

What now? What now?
What now?
Uh, and what comes next?
Probably pigs in the sky if I had to guess
What now? What now?
What now?
Uh, and what comes next?
Probably pigs in the sky if I had to guess
What now? What now?

What now?
Uh, and what comes next?
Probably pigs in the sky if I had to guess
