

Hope

Grace Carter

Yeah, I think that I'm finding hope
I'll find myself, I do
Oh, I wish that I could find some hope
And find myself, I do
Oh, I hate that I lost myself
My heart, my head, and all I had to lose
So I hope that I can find some hope
And find myself, I do

Felt like darkness was my friend
Life always had me on the floor again
I'd been searching for relief
But it felt so out of reach
I didn't know there was light on the way out

Got to smile or I might cry
I've been searching my whole life
I've got bruises on my knees
Left from begging for some peace
I didn't know I'd find light on my way out

I broke my own heart into pieces
I know that something wasn't right

Yeah, I think that I'm finding hope
I'll find myself, I do
Oh, I wish that I could find some hope
And find myself, I do
Oh, I hate that I lost myself
My heart, my head, and all I had to lose
So I hope that I can find some hope
And find myself, I do

Oh, I couldn't find my feet
Oh, I was sinking in the deep end
I was looking for some faith
To make my way out the pain
I didn't know there was light on the way out

I broke my own heart into pieces
I know that something wasn't right

Yeah, I think that I'm finding hope
I'll find myself, I do (I do, I do, I do)
Oh, I wish that I could find some hope
And find myself, I do (I do, I do, I do)
Oh, I hate that I lost myself
My heart, my head, and all I had to lose
So I hope that I can find some hope
And find myself, I do

I do, I do, I do
I do, I do, I do
I do, I do, I do
I do, I do, I do
I do, I do, I do
I do, I do, I do

I do, I do, I do
I do, I do, I do

Yeah, I think that I'm finding hope
I'll find myself, I do
Oh, I wish that I could find some hope
And find myself, I do
Oh, I hate that I lost myself
My heart, my head, and all I had to lose
So I hope that I can find some hope
And find myself, I do
