

Pick Your Tears Up

Grace Carter

I know you feel angry
I know you feel hurt
Looking for yourself in somebody else
With nothing in return
Calls never come back
Cold nights never fade
Hoping you can find just a bit of peace
Hidden in the pain, oh no

I don't wanna let you down
I just wanna stick around
Wish I could pick your tears up off the bathroom floor (Ayo)
Wish I could cover those cracks on your fractured heart (Ayo)
When you're running down an endless road
It's hard to love and let it go
Oh I wish I could pick your tears up
Wish I could pick your tears up off the bathroom floor (Ayo)
(Ayo, ayo)
(Ayo, ayo)
(Ayo, ayo)

I know you feel broken
I know you feel scared
I refuse to sit back and watch you burn
Down in flames, no no
I know that change hurts
So it's easier to stay
But I hate to see you like this
Living with the pain, oh no

I don't wanna let you down
I just wanna stick around
Wish I could pick your tears up off the bathroom floor (Ayo)
Wish I could cover those cracks on your fractured heart (Ayo)
When you're running down an endless road
It's hard to love and let it go
Oh I wish I could pick your tears up
Wish I could pick your tears up off the bathroom floor (Ayo)
(Ayo, ayo)
Wish I could pick your tears up (Ayo, ayo)
Wish I could pick your tears up (Ayo, ayo)
