

Do Or Die

Grace Davies

I got secrets
Had to turn my heart to stone to stop the beating
In case you can hear it
But I have my reasons
Sometimes the hurt you cause a person is worth leaving
So you can keep 'em

When you were asking me where I was, I lied
The guilty creepin' up sleeping on my side, oh no
Oh, no, no, no!
Another day, another dark where I can't decide
Been loving on the edge now it's do or die, oh no
Oh, no, no, no!

Keep my head above the water
Gotta keep my conscience dry
'Cause the less you know the better, baby
Don't act so surprised

I did what I said I wouldn't do
Made a bed and lied with someone new
I don't regret the things I did
But I regret doing them to you
I did what I said I wouldn't do
Tried my best to find a good excuse
I don't regret the things I did
But I regret doing them to you

Floors are creaking
As I tip toe 'round the room to calm my breathing
I start to cry
You wonder why (you wonder why)
But there's a consequence to where you're tryna pry (tryna pry)
Tryna pry, ooh

Pacing up and down the corridor
This house it don't feel like home no more, oh no
Oh, no, no, no!
There's pictures of us hanging on the wall
But they don't really look like me no more, oh no
Oh, no, no, no!

Keep my head above the water
Gotta keep my conscience dry
'Cause the less you know the better, baby
Don't act so surprised

I did what I said I wouldn't do
Made a bed and lied with someone new
I don't regret the things I did
But I regret doing them to you
I did what I said I wouldn't do
Tried my best to find a good excuse
I don't regret the things I did
But I regret doing them to you
To you, to you, to you, to you, to you, to you
But I regret doing them to you

You were asking me where I was, I lied
Been loving on the edge of do or die, oh no
Oh, no, no, no!
You were asking me where I was, I lied
Been living on the edge of do or die, oh no
Oh, no, no, no, no!

I did what I said I wouldn't do
Made a bed and lied with someone new
I don't regret the things I did
But I regret doing them to you
I did what I said I wouldn't do
Tried my best to find a good excuse
I don't regret the things I did
But I regret doing them to you
To you, to you, to you, to you, to you, to you
But I regret doing them to you
To you, to you, to you, to you, to you, to you
But I regret doing them to you
