Brick Wall

Grace Gaustad

Looking in the mirror, now who have I become
Am I losing what I love or has it just begun?
Staring at the clocks and they all look the same
Swear the time don't even pass no more
I can't even pass no more
Runnin' through the streets
They don't even know my name
What's the fun in that?
I want my mother end game
I need you to love me more than I can love myself
Cause I can't love myself as long as I'm this way

Baby don't get up and leave
I need you more than anything
And shit I know time's a thing
But please don't give up on me
Baby don't get up and leave
I need you more than anything
And shit I know time's a thing
But please

Cause it will always hurt
Cause you're the worst of them all
By making it worst
How long until I finally fall?
'TIl I hit my brick wall?

I know it ain't good, but is it really bad?
If I say that I'm alright, I convince myself of that Pushing for the best and pushing for the greatest What if it's all fake shit?
What if I don't make it?
Lost somewhere in a battle of focus
People pulling every which way as if I don't notice
You can pretend to be okay with what you wanna
Once a killer, always a hunter

Baby don't get up and leave
I need you more than anything
And shit I know time's a thing
But please don't give up on me
Baby don't get up and leave
I need you more than anything
And shit I know time's a thing
But please

Cause it will always hurt
Cause you're the worst of them all
By making it worst
How long until I finally fall
'TIl I hit my brick wall
Cause it will always hurt
Cause you're the worst of them all
By making it worst
How long until I finally fall
'TIl I hit my brick wall

Baby don't get up and leave
I need you more than anything
And shit I know time's a thing
But please don't give up on me
Baby don't get up and leave
I need you more than anything
And shit I know time's a thing
But please don't give up on me

How long until I finally fall
I need you more than anything
