

Jupiter 2.0

Grace Gaustad

I had a hard time walking by your house today
'Cause there were two kids standing in the driveway
It's like I knew them, I had so many things to say
But she didn't listen, 'cause she didn't get it
The magic was drifting

And she's on the other side of Jupiter
And she don't want anybody touching her
And if you love, please just let her hurt
'Cause she doesn't want your love, she'd rather burn
Back to Earth

I had a hard time seeing how it all played out
I could have helped her, knowing what I know now
I'd tell her that they'll throw you away and make you afraid
And tell you that you're no good for anything
But fuck what they say, they don't know the way to outer space

Where she's on the other side of Jupiter
And she don't want anybody touching her
And if you love, please just let her hurt
'Cause she doesn't want your love, she'd rather burn
Back to Earth
Back to Earth

I had a hard time walking by your house today
'Cause there were two kids standing in the driveway

And she's on the other side of Jupiter
And she don't want anybody touching her
And if you love, please just let her hurt
'Cause she doesn't want your love, she'd rather burn
And she's on the other side of Jupiter
And she don't want anybody touching her
And if you love, please just let her hurt
'Cause she doesn't want your love, she'd rather burn
Back to Earth

Back to Earth
Back to Earth