

What's It For?

Grace Ives

What's it for? What's it for? What's it for?
I don't know anything anymore
Who am I? Who am I? Who am I?
I watch the day go by
What's a lie? What's a lie? What's a lie?
Why can't I believe anything I hear?
Where's the wind? Where's the stars in the sky?
I don't wish anything anymore

I'm thinkin' back to all the games that I would play
Walk to my calendar, cross off another day
I don't remember how to sing, "Down By The Bay"
Oh why, oh why, oh why? (Oh why, oh why, oh why?)

What's that song? What's that song that I like?
I can't remember anymore
Where's the time? Where's the time? Where's the time?
It pulls me farther from
When I was young, I would stare at the sky
I thought that angels would fly by
What's a laugh? What's a bell? What's a scream?
I don't hear anything anymore

I'm thinkin' back to all the games that I would play
Walk to my calendar, cross off another day
I don't remember how to sing, "Down By The Bay"
Oh why, oh why, oh why? (Oh why, oh why, oh why?)
