

Daylight

Grace Potter

Oh, Lord, it's been a long, long time
I've been lost and found and lost again so many times
I can't remember if I ever knew my way at all
But this is a dark matter, love is a sharp, sharp dagger
Even the slightest touch could cut you down, down, down

Oh, and I didn't mean, I didn't mean to hurt nobody
No, no, no
But intentions are different than actions
Loveless, menace, come, condemn us
I've been lost and found and lost again so many times
I can't pretend I've ever known my way
Oh, oh, but only one thing
Can make it right again, end my suffering
It's been dark too long, tell me where is the sun?
I need the, I need the, I need the daylight

Freedom comes at a cost
It's time to let go of what I lost
Run away with the one I love
Find a place in the canyon sun
I'm gonna find a place in the canyon
Start a new life where I'm standin'
I'm still waitin', let the daylight come
Daylight come, daylight come

Bathe, bathe me in your warm glow
Show me what I've always known, show me that I'm not alone
No more will I be afraid
'Cause I know the stars will burn, the earth will turn
It's gonna bring me back from the black of night
To the daylight