

Futureland

Grace Potter

I wanna live in a Futureland
Where everybody understands
That nothing ever goes to plan
I wanna live in a future-la-la-la-la-land

I wanna speak in a future tongue
So I can talk to everyone
And we'll spin together all around the sun
Yeah, I wanna talk in a future-ta-ta-ta-ta-tongue

I wanna do so many future things
But I'm scared of what tomorrow brings
I wanna jump ahead, but I don't dare
'Cause what if there's nothing there?

I wanna sleep with a future man
In the future they can't use their hands
But tonight I'll tell him that he can
I wanna sleep with a future-ma-ma-ma-ma-man

I wanna do so many future things
But I'm scared of what tomorrow brings
I wanna jump ahead, but I don't dare
'Cause what if there's nothing there?

I want to talk to my future ghost
When I'm in the cosmic compost
I wanna find out what I'm gonna miss the most
So the rest of my time here ain't wasted

I wanna do so many future things
But I'm scared of what tomorrow brings
I wanna jump ahead, but I don't dare
'Cause what if there's nothing there?
