

Make You Cry

Grace Potter

I know how to make you cry
I know how to make you cry
Out the door and say goodbye
That's how I make you cry

I don't need you by my side
I don't need you by my side
Won't have time to wonder why
I know I'll get by

When you walked into my life
Boy, we stayed up every night till dawn
Love is fickle, love is fine
So unkind when it's up and gone

Whoa, oh, oh
I know how to tell the truth
I know how to tell the truth
But I can't tell it to you
When you don't want me to

When it comes to love, I never hide
From the little things I feel inside
But I get the funny feeling
That you'd rather pull the wool over your eyes

I guess I gotta make you cry
Maybe then you'll realize
That you took my love for granted, baby
And now I'm out the door
I'm gonna say goodbye
That's how I know how to make you cry

I know how to make you cry
Goodbye, baby, yeah
Ooh, ooh, ooh
I know how to make you cry
Well, I know how to make you cry
I know how to make you cry
Mmm, oh, oh, ooh, ooh
I know how to make you cry
Uh-huh
I know how to make you cry
Ooh, out the door and say goodbye
That's how I'm gonna make you cry
I know how to make you cry
Out the door and say goodbye
That's how I'm gonna make you cry
I know how, I know how
Out the door and say goodbye
That's how I'm gonna make you cry
