

Beg For It

Grace VanderWaal

You give 'em and them taking
And you invite me to your mansion, ah, ah-ooh
You know I really hate waiting
Can we just live in the moment? Ah, ah, ah

Multiply the things I like, make me feel like, ooh
My supply, addicted to your eye

Would you make me feel like I've been fucking irresistible?
Don't you hesitate when I tell you exactly what I want?
I could really take you there, but how far would you really go?
Would you beg for it? Would you beg for it?

(Ah, ah, ah, ah)

Isn't this what you asked for?
And I'm walking in slow-mo, ah, ah-ooh
In the penthouse on the top floor
I wanna feel you need to be adored

Multiply the things I like, ah, make me feel like, ooh
My supply, addicted to your eye

Would you make me feel like I've been fucking irresistible?
Don't you hesitate when I tell you exactly what I want?
I could really take you there, but how far would you really go?
Would you beg for it? Would you beg for it?

Would you make me feel like I've been fucking irresistible?
Don't you hesitate when I tell you exactly what I want?
I could really take you there, but how far would you really go?
Would you beg for it? Would you beg for it?

(Ah, ah, ah, ah) Would you beg?
(Ah, ah, ah, ah) Ooh
(Ah, ah, ah, ah) Would you beg?
Would you beg for it?
(Ah, ah, ah, ah) Ooh
