

Today And Tomorrow

Grace VanderWaal

Don't say maybe, just don't wake me
We can stay here for as long as we want
And make forever last a while

Leave the light on
After the sun
Leaves and goes to a far off ocean
And lay here with me

And I'll catch you
Fallin' into me, fallin' into you
Lettin' go of all the things I've thought were true
Fallin' into me as I'm fallin' into you
It seems so clear but I don't know what to do

I speak too much, you stay closed off
But I can see
Your thoughts in the stardust
Shining back at me

As I catch you
Fallin' into me, fallin' into you
Lettin' go of all the things I've thought were true
Fallin' into me, as I'm fallin' into you
It seems so clear but I don't know what to do

One day I'll be
Old and ugly
Will you still be thinking of me?
If we were as brave as we are now

And I'll catch you
Thinking of me, as I'm thinking of you
Lettin' go of all the things I thought were true
As you're fallin' into me and I'm fallin' into you
It seems so clear but I don't know what to do
