

In a hotel room with a ocean view
Sways back and forth
Glass on a marble floor
And I'm never alone
But within these moments
I think of you
Probably just wakin' up

You really can't relate
All these people round me
I don't even know their name
Say, "Yes", to whatever
Take me out my brain
Listen when I talk
'Cause I won't say that shit again
It's wild
I wanna
See through your eyes
And come undone

Windows down
Spillin' Maily on the ground
I know the smoke too loud
Heat up the pool at the house
Open the moon roof now
I'm tryna pop out
Somethin' 'bout
Us in the after hours
Cold water running south
Girls in the backseat cryin'
Girls with the broken hearts
Let's take a shot now

Kicks French like a bulldog
Got ego worth its weight in gold
Stone cold stay in control
If you come and go
It was nice to know you
No time 'less it's iced out
Don't need no one but me and myself
And I'll be the one that dead it, what we talkin' about?
And I know that you really can't relate

Every time you see me
You act like I changed
All these people round me
I don't even know their name
Say, "Yes", to whatever
Take me out my brain
Listen when I talk
'Cause I won't say this shit again

Mona Lisa
Thought I saw god that night
All the lights out
Swear I saw god

Windows down
Spillin' Mailly on the ground
Somethin' 'bout
Us in the after hours

Yeah, yeah
Yeah, yeah
Yeah, yeah
Yeah
Yeah, yeah
Yeah, yeah
Yeah, yeah
Ooh, ooh

Stay high don't get low
Long days nights so cold
It look like a paid vacation
Why do I feel so alone?
It don't matter where I go
It don't matter where I been
Never meet my expectations
Bright lights make it hard to breathe

Windows down
Open the moon roof now
I'm tryna pop out
Somethin' 'bout
Us in the after hours
Cold water running south
Let's take a shot now

Yeah, yeah
Yeah, yeah
Yeah, yeah
Yeah
Yeah, yeah
Yeah, yeah
Yeah, yeah
Ooh, ooh
