

Smoke

Grace

Alone again
I talk and you sit there on your phone again
Your body's right here
But your mind is somewhere else
You disappear like smoke in the air

I think I'll lay in bed
I think I'll watch the re-runs in my head
When you actually used to try
I think I'll lay to rest the parts that I regret
And focus on the highs

Cause I can't bring myself
How can I bring myself to say goodbye
Cause I can't bring myself
How can I bring myself to say goodbye

You don't care
That is abundantly clear
And your promises mean nothing
When all you do break 'em

Is it me?
I think I'll lay in bed
I think I'll watch the re-runs in my head
When you actually used to try
I think I'll lay to rest the parts that I regret
And focus on the highs

Cause I can't bring myself
How can I bring myself to say goodbye
Cause I can't bring myself
How can I bring myself to say goodbye

All you ever do is pick me up
Just to let me down
Go another round
Break my heart again
Can we start again

All you ever do is fuck me up
Then you push your luck
Make me fall in love
Then I cry again
I get so upset

When you disappear like smoke in the air
When you disappear like smoke in the air
When you disappear like smoke in the air
When you disappear like smoke in the air
