

Far Away

Gracenote

Why can't I fight this feeling?
Is there any way to endure this loneliness?
That consumes me inside
Inside

I always whisper
All the things I feel for you
But deep down I know
I wanted to be heard

I have you, but yet I don't
You were close, but yet so far away
Oh, I'm just too weak to face the truth
That I love you
I love you

Why can't I say it?
That deep down I want to give you
One perfect slow dance
The way you want me to (you want me to)

I won't say a word
Nor tell you sweet words
I will just hold you as if it's my last
My last

I have you, but yet I don't
You were close, but yet so far away
Oh, I'm just too weak to face the truth
That I love you
I love you

'Cause I'm afraid we can never be
Hey, hey

I have you, but yet I don't
You were close, but yet so far away
Oh, I'm just too weak to face the truth
That I love you
I love you

I have you, but yet I don't
You were close, but yet so far away
Oh, I'm just too weak to face the truth
That I love you
I love you

I love you
I love you
