

I Will Wait

Gracenote

Sometimes I feel alone
But then I carry on
Life goes on and on and on

Some guys are asking me out
But I give them the doubt
It's you that I want and I've been waiting

Girl, don't you think I'm crazy
You can tell me maybe
Waiting for nobody
But I'm still holding on

And you know that you can love me
More than anybody
And I will feel the same thing
But if you're not ready yet, well

Then I will wait for you
To ask me "will you be my Valentine"
And I'll be around
Yeah, I will wait for you
To tell me "it's you I want all my life"
And I'll be your pride

Sometimes I rest my eyes
With you inside my mind
And I can't get enough of your smile

Some guys are asking me why
I leave them all behind
It's you that I want and I've been waiting

Girl, don't you think I'm crazy
You can tell me maybe
Waiting for nobody
But I'm still holding on

And you know that you can love me
More than anybody
And I will feel the same thing
But if you're not ready yet, well

Then I will wait for you
To ask me "will you be my Valentine"
And I'll be around
Yeah, I will wait for you
To tell me "it's you I want all my life"
And I'll be your pride

The one that you can talk with
About everything under the sun
The one through thick and thin that
You can rely on (you can rely on)

I'll be there by your side
If you would pop the question now

I am yours (I am yours)
And you'll be mine
If you'd take the chance and be with me

I will wait for you
To ask me "will you be my Valentine"
And I'll be around
Yeah, I will wait for you
To tell me "it's you I want all my life"
And I'll be your pride

I will wait for you
To ask me "will you be my Valentine"
And I'll be around
Yeah, I will wait for you
To tell me "it's you I want all my life"
And I'll be your pride

Yeah, I'll be your pride
I'll be your pride
