

Someone

Gracenote

Now that you're across the sea
Thinking of it makes me wanna swim forever
Until I reach you and wrap my arms around you
While your tears are wiped away by me

Hey you used to be just someone I see
When I pass through the gate
Someone I sit beside and laugh with
Used to be just someone I meet
Now you're someone
Someone I love and my everything

I know that right now you're thinking of me
(You're thinking of me)
While you're walking
So I wish a wind would pass by you and whisper
That there's no one else that I love but you

Hey you used to be just someone I see
When I pass through the gate
Someone I sit beside and laugh with
Used to be just someone I meet
Now you're someone
Someone I love and my everything

Someone
Now you're someone
Now you're someone
Now you're someone

Now you're someone (someone)
Now you're someone (someone)
That I've been looking for

Now you're someone (someone)
Now you're someone (someone)
That I've been looking for

You used to be someone I see
And someone I just met
But now you're someone
Someone I love and my everything

Hey you used to be just someone I see
When I pass through the gate
Someone I sit beside and laugh with
Used to be just someone I meet
Now you're someone
Someone I love and my everything
