Have we got love on, love on, love on our hands?
Caught myself thinking, thinking 'bout you again
Have I got glitter in my eyes or do you shine this bright?

Feelings they drive me, drive me, drive me insane
I never meant to feel this way and it scares me every day
I got you on, you on, you on my brain

Shouldn't let you closer into my emotions
But you know I got a little more love than that

Ninety-nine, yeah, ninety-nine percent
Kiss me one more time and I'm there, ninety-nine percent there
I'm afraid to call it love but you're pushing me up and now
I'm ninety-nine, yeah, ninety-nine percent there

Shouldn't let you closer into my emotions
Should've let me broke but you got in the way, yeah
You know I got, you know I got a little more love than that, th
