

In Between

Gracie Abrams

I just can't come between 'em, they got their own thing
I wish he'd stop pretendin', he won't let his phone ring
For more than a couple seconds, oh, I think maybe two Two hearts just fallin' in and out of love for somethin' new

I wish that you could see 'em, their faces lighten up Their past is cold and empty, they know it's been enough
Of waitin' on somebody, someone who doesn't care
But he knows her name, she knows he'll always be there

He laughs at her eyes, at her smile, at the glasses on her face
She loves how he talks late at night, when there's no one else
to say How she's beautiful and funny and smart like nothin' he's ever seen
He's good to her, and she wants it more than everything in betw een

She toes the line between 'em, he says he's new at this There's holy ground beneath them, and sparks fly when they kiss
He hates it when she's crying, he hates when she's away
Even at their worst, they know they'll still be okay

He laughs at her eyes, at her smile, at the glasses on her face
She loves how he talks late at night, when there's no one else
to say
How she's beautiful and funny and smart like nothin' he's ever
seen
He's good to her, and she wants it more than everything in betw een

Everything in between Everything in between

He laughs at her eyes, at her smile, at the glasses on her face
She loves how he talks late at night, when there's no one else
to say
How she's beautiful and funny and smart like nothin' he's ever
seen
He's good to her, and she wants it more than everything in betw een