

Normal Thing

Gracie Abrams

It's a normal thing to fall in love with movie stars
When the lights are low and red at all their favorite bars
And the story you want is the story you get
Are you special or was this all scripted in his head?

I remember when I saw your face not long ago
I was on my couch
You were on my screen
One of us was stoned
And the plot line was rare
Swear I felt you right there
Maybe that was the beginning of our love affair

I did my pacing and reeling
I even think you looked cute at times
I know there's more than that feeling
I didn't know it for most my life

Don't worry I know I'll see you again
Uh huh
You'll make me cry when it comes to an end
You were great
What a show
But I don't recommend
Getting close
It's how it goes
But I'll see you again

It's a normal thing for me to become underwhelmed
But I get the point, I see it all, you're something else
Cut and you go quiet
No one noticed, I did
But I notice everything so you're not different

I practiced speeches in private
I was impressed with my every line
I think we call that performing
That's not how I want to spend my life

Don't worry I know I'll see you again
Uh huh
You'll make me cry when it comes to an end
You were all that we hoped but I can't recommend
Getting close
I should've known
But I'll see you again

Had a good time but I guess I'll see ya
You're a good guy but I guess I'll see ya
And you changed my life but I guess I'll see ya
Because it's over now so I guess I'll see ya
I know now but I guess I'll see ya
I know now but I guess I'll see ya
I know now but I guess I'll see ya
