

Two people

Gracie Abrams

Turn around, why are you talking so slowly
Why's it feel like you don't even know me?
How are you looking at me like a stranger?
I'm the radar for every deal breaker

I loved you so hard for a time
I've tried to ration it out all my life
We could go yellow to black overnight
I take you for granted because you are mine

Don't know what to say
Two people can change
Don't think we're above
Might happen to us
Oh, isn't it strange?
We'll die anyway
Don't think we're above
Might happen to us
Mmm

Now to make sense of half of a decade
Feels like walking alone on the freeway
'Cause you know everything that could kill me
And you know, you know every inch of my body

I loved you so hard for a time
So why am I clawing you to survive?
Hate how we touch just to push things aside
When you take me for granted, I make it alright

Don't know what to say
Two people can change
Don't think we're above
Might happen to us
Oh, isn't it strange?
We'll die anyway
Don't think we're above
Might happen to us

Mmm, mmm, mmm, mmm
Mmm, mmm, mmm

Don't know what to say
Two people can change
Don't think we're above
Might happen to us
Isn't it strange?
We'll die anyway
Don't think we're above
Might happen to us
Mmm
